Dear Noprival:

We have reached a decision regarding your submission to Indonesian Journal of EFL and Linguistics, "ANALYZING GRAMMATICAL AND LEXICAL COHESION IN A LEGENDARY SHORT STORY".

Our decision is: Revisions Required

Reviewers' Comments:

This article entitled: "Analyzing Grammatical and Lexical Cohesion in A Legendary Short Story". The topic fits the aims and scope of the journal. However, there are some issues that need to be considered as follows.

1. Introduction: Please add 5-10 relevant studies, and promote the similarities and differences to studies, and explain the gap of the study.
2. Literature Review: Many references are out of date, please delete and eliminate some of them, and find the references from the last five year.
3. Discussion: The data are rich, but the discussion is not too critical and meaningful. You should develop the discussion section to be more meaningful by comparing the findings to many more relevant studies.
4. References: Please add 10-20 references from journal articles. Make sure you have minimum 30 references.
5. References: Please write references referring to APA 7th edition style.
6. Language Use: The author should check English writing more carefully to avoid any grammar mistakes. Check your work for linguistic errors and correct these weak points. Improve the flow of language and readability as well as reduce ambiguities and obscurities. It is strongly suggested to proofread the article by a native speaker or a PhD in English or translation.
